punishment commensurate with the cowardide or their crime? We were led to these remarks by accidentally observing a squrious counterfact of Udolpho Wolfe's Schiedam Schinappa. The labels were imitated perfectly, with the slight addition of a few letters to plead technical avoidance of the law against counterfeiting; the bettles were very similar, and everything prepared to impose upon a careless purchaser. Now is not the man who perpetrated this frand a folical a robber? Assuredly he is; for, as Mr. Welfe has expended large sums to bring perpetrated this fraud a felon, a robber? Assuredly he is; for, as Mr. Welfe has expended large sums to being his genuine imported Schnappe into peoular designation, that demand may be justly considered a part of his capits, in trade, and a fellow stealing a part of his reputation is as much a thief as if he had stolen a harrel of his Schnappe in bolk.
